GRENADA

Visitor Arrival Summary

During the first eight months of 2004, tourist arrivals to Grenada had risen by 6.9 percent to 106.5 thousand tourists. This level of performance was anticipated to continue until year's end. With the passage of Hurricane Ivan in September, arrivals plummeted during the last four months by 36.0 percent. Overall, 133.9 thousand tourists (the second highest number to visit in any one year) visited , a decrease of 6.0 percent when compared to the record 142.3 thousand in 2003.

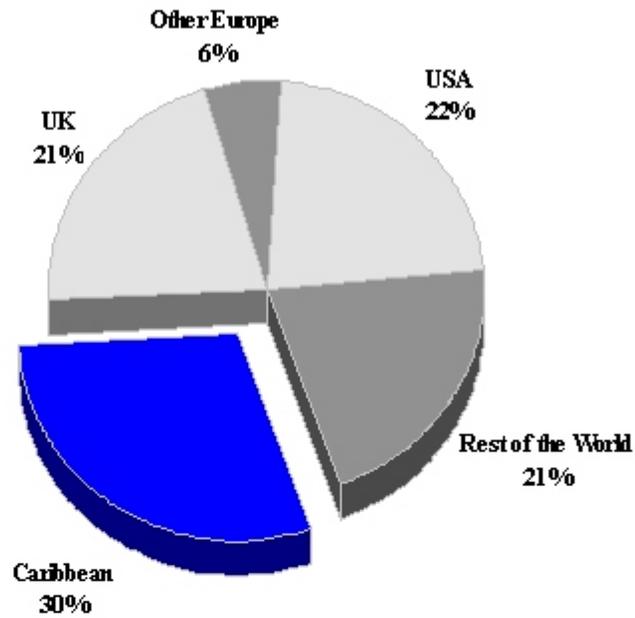

- ◆ Stay- over arrivals from the United States totaled 30.1 thousand in 2004 compared to 35.1 thousand in 2003, a decrease of 14.3 percent with these arrivals representing 22.5 percent of total arrivals. Similar declining levels of tourists were recorded in the Canadian and European markets. The Caribbean has emerged as the largest source market (29.9 percent of the total) for Grenada due mainly to the many relief workers who assisted after the hurricane. Consequently an increase of 4.3 percent was recorded in this market.
- ◆ The Grenadians residing aboard segment had an increase in market share of almost 2 percentage points from 12.7 percent in 2003 to 14.3 percent in 2004. This translated to some 2.3 thousands or 14.1 percent more returning for touristic activities.
- ◆ The performance of the cruise passenger arrivals to Grenada was remarkable mainly due to the winter and early summer growth. By the end of August arrivals had risen by 84.6 percent. The end-of-year count showed 299.8 thousand passengers had arrived at this destination, an increase of 56.4 percent over 2003. This was achieved with less cruise calls, 249 in 2004 compared with 267 in 2003.
